

ANANTA UDAIPUR

Udaipur gloriously flaunts its title as the crown jewel of Rajasthan with its abundant natural beauty, mesmerizing temples, and massively intricate architecture. Also known as the City of Lakes, this 'Venice of the East' is surrounded by hills, making it as scenic as it is. Set in the picturesque beauty of the Aravalli Hills, Ananta Udaipur is a perfect getaway in Udaipur. This resort is located about 30 km from Maharana Pratap Airport and 12 km from Udaipur Railway Station. Taxi services are easily available to and from the resort. Whether for a leisure stay, a destination wedding, or a corporate off-site, Ananta Udaipur is one of the best resorts in Udaipur for every occasion.

EKLINGJI TEMPLE

Eklingji Temple is one of the most famous temples of Rajasthan. Located in the town of Eklingji (Kailashpuri), the place got its popular name from the temple. Eklingji Temple is positioned at a distance of 22 km in the north of Udaipur, on the national highway no. 8. Eklingnath Temple is dedicated to the Lord Shiva of the Hindu religion. Initially, the temple was built in 734 A.D. by Bappa Rawal. Since that time, Eklingji has been the ruling deity of Mewar rulers. In the later years, it was repaired and modified by various Kings, to clean the remnants of obliteration made by the attacks of Mohammedans.

NATHDWARA

Nathdwara is a small town in the Indian state of Rajasthan. Situated at a distance of 48kms in the north-east of Udaipur, Nathdwara is sited on the right bank of Banas River. Nathdwara is famous for its 17th century temple that is dedicated to Lord Shrinathji (Lord Krishna). The term 'Nathdwara' suggests the 'gate of the lord'. Shrinathji Temple is also known as 'Haveli of Shrinathji' and makes a prominent pilgrimage of the Hindus / Vaishnavas.

MAHARANA PRATAP MUSEUM

Maharana Pratap Museum, Welcomes you to Haldighati, the land of bravery, sacrifice and great history. Haldighati plays an important role in the Indian History. Massive battle held here between the Mughals and Maharana Pratap. Here at our Musuem We have tried our best to provide you all the information about the Great Legend Maharana Pratap. We have displayed almost every thing and covered every aspects to take you back in that aera. In 2003 an imaginative museum dedicated to the great Maharana opened, and was unsurprisingly named the Maharana Pratap Museum, Haldighati. The realisation of a dream to create museum founder and owner Mohan Shrimali.

MOTI MAGAR

The Moti Magri hill in Udaipur is famous for the legend of Maharana Pratap and his beloved horse Chetak, who played a vital role in the battle of Haldighati against the Mughals. Despite being crippled and badly wounded, valiant Chetak saved the life of Maharana Pratap. On top of Moti Magri is located the memorial the king built for Chetak. The hill overlooks the Fateh Sagar Lake, offering a splendid view of the Aravalli range and the captivating lake. An 11-feet high statue of Maharana Pratap riding his horse Chetak stands in the middle of the garden atop the hill. There is also a Moti Magri Museum on the hill that offers a glimpse of the battle of Haldighati.

FATEH SAGAR LAKE

This delightful lake, bordered by hills and woodlands, lies to the north of Lake Pichola. This artificial lake is connected to Lake Pichola by a canal. The lake houses the beautiful Nehru Island as well as an islet on which stands the Udaipur Solar Observatory. It was inaugurated by the Duke of Connaught and was initially called Connaught Bundh.

NEHRU GARDEN

Nehru Garden is a picturesque oval-shaped island, located amidst Fateh Sagar Lake. The garden is named after Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of India. It was opened for the public on 14th November 1967 to mark his birth anniversary. This beautiful garden is a major tourist attraction of Udaipur. Spread across an area of 4.5 acres, the park has a lily pond, a flower garden and fountains. Travellers can also enjoy in the floating restaurant located in the garden premises.

